BUFFALO. December 17 .- A serious fir attended by a heavy loss of life, occurred here this evening. About 6 o'clock fire was discovered in the third story of the immense five-story building owned by George W. Tifft on Perry street, and occupied by Birge & Sons, wall-paper manufacturers. The build-ing is 60 feet front by about 300 feet in depth, and about 150 men and boys were employed. The business demanding extra help, all of the number were at work, and in less than twenty minutes after the alarm was given the building was a mass of flames The walls crumbled and fell and probably buried from twenty to thirty of the employes The doors to the different rooms were hung to swing in and each had a spring closing them, thereby retarding the egress of the occupants. The building was without a fire escape of any kind, and the terrified workmen jumped from the windows, and many of them only escaped with broken bones and bruised bodies.

One of the foremen in the fifth story, who was badly burned, and jumped to the ground is unrecognizable, his head a body being mashed to a jelly, but is supposed to be John Malone, aged fifteen years, jumped from the fifth story and was killed.

John Griffin, jumped from the fourth floor; arm broken and badly injured internally. Moses Maloney, leg fractured; jumped from fifth story.

Patrick O'Brien, badly burned about the head and back and arm broken.

Ed McCormick, jumped from the fifth door; badly cut on the head.

Mysterious Diamond Robbery. CLEVELAND, O., December 17 .- This after the residence of Mrs. Governor Todd Youngstown, was entered by robbers who stole $8000 worth of diamonds and jewelry. The family were at home and it is a great mystery how the robbery occurred.

Columbus, O., December 17.- Joseph cide, by cutting his throat at I o'clock to-Milwaukee Marauders.

MILWAUKEE, December 17.—Verandah limbers robbed the residence of J. B. Oliver, while the occupants were at dinner, of jewelry and furs to the value of $700. The house of John Plankinton was entered in the same manner about 7 p.m., but the thieves necessary. She was escorted to her hotel by Oliver, while the occupants were at dinner, were frightened away by the servants. Big Haul from a Georgia Man. JERSEY CITY, December 17.—I., M. Myer, of Augusta, Georgia, reported at police headquarters that, while on his way here, he was robbed of $10,800, which was in a bag under his pillow. He says the robbery was committed between this city and Philadelphia, some time between 4 and 6 o'clock to-Soaping a Rope For Him. CINCINNATI, December 17.—The people of Ludlow, Kentucky, were terribly excited this morning, over evidence which seems to them night, described vividly the reign of terror next to unquestionable, that Major Hicks, a colored boy now under arrest, is the veritable assassin of Henry Williams, in the tragedy of Wednesday night. When the conclusion is fully reached that he is the man, there remains scarely a question that he will be instantly lynched.

Buffalo, December 17 .- Joseph J. Bork the defaulting city treasurer who escaped the defective character of the indictment and against him, was arraigned again to day on three new in lictments, charging him with having appropriated 100 city bonds, valued at $100,000, October 1, 1875, and times. The defects in the old indictments were remedied, and the case will be brought CINCINNATI, December 17 .- A crowd of 150 to 200 men gathered in Covington to-night to lynch the negro Hicks, now in the Covington jail, charged with the muder of Henry Williams. Marshal Goodson placed the prisoner in the most secure cell in the jail, brought in his police force of fifteen men, and, arming them heavily with re-volvers, stationed them so as to command the only entrance to the jail. Besides, the only entrance to the jail. Besides, he organized a force of fifteen citizens armed with guns to patrol outside the jail. All night there has been a crowd of people see what might happen. At midnight a force from Ludlow, armed in all conceivable ways, apppeared at the jail and demanded the re organized attack was made, but a few shots were fired and great excitement was aroused for a time. The marshal, at 12:45, thought the Ludlow force would peacably withdraw.

The London Times, in a leading article on the Irish question, says: "The followers of the government are embarrassed, and for the most part do not know what to say, while few are bold enough to express their regret at the line their leaders have pursued. Whitbread one of the most respected liberals in the that made an honest calling unsafe in a large part of Ireland, and avowed his feeling that a sad time had come when the government might be compelled to use coercion. There had been liberal governments before the present government embarrassed by Irish difficulties, but they have not been slack to do what they could to assert the authority of those times and the spirit prevailing now is little to the credit of the government, or that of the present generation. One of the worst faction of justice, but it is too probable that it will be received as a concession to lawlessness, with which the government did not venture to grapple, if the arbitrary demands are not granted in the form in which they have been made. It will still be said that what i REAL ESTATE. given is the result of a demonstration of the irresistible power of the people determined to have their own way.
